The Champagne Guide 2020-2021 - Tyson Stelzer

Jean-François prefers his 2005 Dream Collection to 2008. Both accurately articulate the mood of their contrasting seasons, the 2005 already a golden yellow hue and brimming with luscious golden delicious apple and pineapple fruit, true to this warm vintage. It's a spicy and rich style and it relies on this generosity in order to carry the dry phenolic grip and coffee and cocoa notes of the season.
